UML Class Diagram

LeaveRequest Class

Description: The `LeaveRequest` class represents an employee's leave application. It stores the request details and status, provides getter methods, and supports approval and rejection operations.